help-linux wrote on Sun, 03 December 2006 15:33j ball is right, however, i have felt almost right from the start i have not been liked on these forums. i want this to be the TRUTH not hidden behind some stupid mature closed minded adult, what you think of me. my posts latetly have been completely against adults, but that is because us kids are judged like meat. if we do something wrong, like a mistake thats it you all hate us. and sterotype us. when in fact i have not seen in the media one 15 year old kill someone, mabe it has happend but alot more adults do this. it has been proven that alot more crimes are commited by 18+(i cannot find a servay but seen it on the news, mabe someone wants to find one). so before you look at a 15 year old and judge him because he is wearing a "hoody" and yes i wear them. it keeps my head warm. think to yourself and say "who am i to judge him like that" and if you do. why dont you do it to anyone but us kids?

i came to these forums to help people, but in some cases i need help myself. lets take the Seye for instance, i need 2 thing that would take 5 mins each for someone to do. first, i needed infomation about gamelog as i didn't have the sources to SSAOW. second, i needed some overhead pictures of the maps. not all of them just some so i can get sizes and positioning right. no one wanted to even do that. secondly, all i wanted was for a few people (about 10) to download and run the SBot to see if it worked that would take less than 1 min. about 3 people done it. i tryed to give something to the community and i got next to nothing in return, you should all be happy because if you wanted to make me very depressed ... you acomplished it. when i started playing renegade it was because of the17doctor, and because of how crappy servers have gone...he has gone completly off renegade. i havnt played it in a long time because i was wrting the SBot and Seye, and now my website. oh and i just remberd, i made a thread like you suggested for my site. i was asking for links etc so i can put some content on my site. 2 people posted SSes of renegade in-game and 5 fan-pictures. other than that it went derelict. what did i do to deserve that? or do i live a life being more and more depressed untill i die. what a waste of human life, that had so much potential.

Wow, so thought out... but so misguided.

Kids are looked down upon, yes. Maybe too much, but it's not as harshly as you make it out to be. I was there once. I look back and realize how stupid I was, but I thought I was smarter than everyone who disagreed with me. I am not calling you stupid because you're young. I was like you once. I thought I was smarter than I was. I wasn't stupid, but I had a lot of growing up to do, and to be honest, I still have a bit of immaturity left. I'm not done growing up, myself.

As for wearing hoodies... whoever judges someone for wearing a hoodie is a damn idiot. I wear hoodies. My girlfriend wears hoodies. My brother, cousin, and even my mom wears hoodies.

I try not to judge people, but when I say that you're a 15 year old, immature kid, it's not saying it to judge... it's the truth. There's not much you can do to escape the immaturity of your age. It's a physical thing, too. Our brains don't fully mature until about the age of 25.

As for being depressed about the responses you've gotten from people on here... duh? It's the Renegade Forums, and it's filled with idiots. Of course, they're not going to help. You'll see threads left and right like yours being derailed. If you want help, you certainly shouldn't try and get it from here. These forums have lost all of it's compassion years ago.

It's not so much age that grants you wisdom, it's age that grants you maturity, which... if you use to the potential, can let you achieve wisdom. Those who look down at kids because they're young are tossing the future of our world out the window. I was looked down upon as a kid, and I hated it, but the truth is, there is some legitimacy to it. Kids aren't mature. As I said above, it's physical.

Don't try to grow up quickly to be accepted, but certainly don't use this time as an excuse to be annoying. Have fun, but at the same time don't act like it's your right to be a spoiled, arrogant brat.
