I've lived in situations as a child that most black people don't have to go through anymore. Gunshots flying over my head on my way to school .... intersections where people do not stop .... and trainstations where the train refuses to stop. And I pulled out of that without talking ebonics, wearing clothes that fall past my ass, and thinking I'm a thug that "no one understands". I'm living proof that black people are straight up fucking whiners and will blame anyone but themselves for the problems they have in their life.
