Below the navigation bar is a 'User Authentication' section with the following elements:

- Alias:
- Password:
- Log In button
- Register an account
- Forgot your password?

Below the authentication section is a breadcrumb trail: Index >> Home/News

The main content area features a post titled 'RANT!' with the following text:

RANT! I was ready to take my semester finals today, but mothernature all of her snow on Colorado. I woke up this morning to find out that sch canceled, not just mine too, the entire district. So, I have an extra day done around the house and study for finals. I guess I can't really compl have rather taken my finals today than stay home.

Below the post is a date separator: December 20, 2006

The post continues with the text:

The website is under construction
The website is under heavy development right now. Currently there are in the table designs. I am having alot of trouble with the Visual Studio D When I do get the designer and table layout working, I will be able to c pages. Before hand I need to change the left column background. It loc
