Okay first off let me ask Crimson and other mods to permaban the IP of user "tyvecuman", if you can find it.

Okay, so here's what this person did:

I was on C&C_Field in a mobile artillery, and as soon as I buy it he jumps in with me. When I get out to the front lines and start firing at enemy tanks, he does "something" that causes his head to pop out of the tanks with his arms spread, like you would see in a modelling program.

What this does to me is completely anchors my tank to the fucking ground. It didn't let me move in ANY direction. All I could do was get out of my tank and let it die.

It took me a while to figure out what the hell was going on (hey, maybe it was lag), but after the FOURTH time this happened with tyvecuman in my tank, I am positive that it was him. He had Renguard running too.

I tried to get some mods in n00bstories to ban him but they didn't believe me so he runs free. Anyways, if you ever find your tank mysteriously anchored to the ground with someone's head sticking out, you can assume it's a hack and the person in the tank besides you is at fault.
