JohnDoe: The players in the games you ruined probably did not share your idea that it was fun. It was disgraceful, immature, and pointless.

That was a reaction to the post above me, but apparently that reaction is normal over here so I'll just shut up about the general flaming etc that tends to happen here rather often, about all sorts of things.

So JohnDoe, you are saying that all CW players have a load of cheats ready for these kinds of things? I tend to find that rather wierd actually, but that might be just me...
