Don't try to tell me "IT'S TEH WILL OF THE MODS! U OBEY THEM!?" because in a situation like this, that's just ridiculous.

The administration doesn't want the discussion of this topic on their forums. Honestly, I would delete every thread on my forum that was meant to be disrespectful to my wishes. I have no tolerance for disrespect. Nobody has the right to be on these forums. Nobody has the right to post, and certainly no right to disrespect the administration.

I don't give a fuck if you think that is logical or not. I wouldn't let someone into my house just so they can speak malign words about me. That's just asking for a shove out my door or a call to the cops about a trespasser. Nobody comes into my house and disrespects me, and the same goes for my sites and forums. I believe it to be no different here. Obey the mods or STFU and GTFO.
