Current News

24 January, 2007 - RenGuard 1.032 in private beta

I have just sent RenGuard 1.032, Release Candidate 1 out to our private beta testers! v00d00 has worked REALLY hard to get this intermediate version done for us!

It is very likely that the RG2 backend network and RenGuard 1.04 will be ready for private beta testing by the end of this month, but we simply MUST test it thoroughly with a lot of different people before we can make it public. Think of it this way: RenGuard 1.03 (the current version) was tested by about 120-130 people and we still ended up finding problems with Win2k and Win64 afterwards.

I know this has taken way too long to accomplish and I know that we have
