majikentMadtoneYes you should, they are well worth it!! I might be taking my exams for it soon, doing it over the net, im going for the Micrsoft Certified Database Administrator on SQL 7.0 and SQL 2000

Yeah... I plan on taking the needed tests to become MCSA... then eventually taking all required to become MCSE... will take some time though... and lots of money lol.
Yeah, the money is allways the problem, thank god work is paying for mine!!! lol
