The point of a ban is to remove a person who has destruction behavior and is doing harm to this forum. Viking is totally fine. If he annoys you, PLEASE use the ignore button or just don't read his topics. Let him be how he is, there is nothing wrong with that. JohnDoe may be trolling sometimes, but it's not hard to deal with him at all. There is a report button for a reason. I guarantee you that it works, because every moderator gets this highly noticeable indication at the top when something has been reported, and it doesn't get ignored.

Also, a poll like this won't automatically make any decision for us at all. Anybody who votes is voting for nothing.

Well said.

lol

Sniper_De7 wrote on Mon, 19 March 2007 21:35The point whoever said it was trying ot make was that you can't use the reasoning "he's annoying, so ban him" because there are a lot of people are annoying, so if one person is annoying and gets banned for it, it would only be fair that every annoying person gets banned.

There are a lot of annoying people here.

Goztow wrote on Tue, 20 March 2007 02:01I won't vote in this topic though, considering it's not a poll started by a moderator.

You cannot start a poll if you are not a moderator, ie: a moderator added the poll to the thread, ie: a moderator inferred that this would be taken seriously, but strangely doesn't post to say who it is? my vote is Crimson?

Voting to ban someone is retarded, mods are there to unbiased and ban people when they break the rules, not offer people up to the public vote ACK style.

LOL, I have no idea why I felt the need to respond to so many people, I know JohnDoe doesn't give a shit anyway - i doubt he even voted no, lol.
