Merovingian wrote on Sun, 27 May 2007 07:20Power Supply Unit fan 513 just shut the fuck up. You're the one who started with Reaver saying he knew nothing and he knows more than you so just please shut your mouth!

Don't forget, you came here, we didn't come to you and you should show more respect to those who are willing to help you. Even if you did find out the solution by yourself (congrats with that btw) you shouldn't say that others don't know jack about the subject in question when you don't even know who they are.

The reaction you got from the members of this forum was brought upon you by yourself, so you can't blame anyone but you.

Dealt. This arguement is over as far as I can see. Let us move one now.
