bigwig992Uhh...
rake rake, farm farm

That's defenetily intended to be a chicken. I was making a chicken mod way back, and all the strings had the name "chicken" not duck. Plus, if that's a duck, I would have to go back through all the strings and edit them  .

not my chicken,

This is what we are talking about:

This is not a chicken, but a duck. Well it is kinda a chicken, if you look at the legs, but every thing else, is pure duck...
