It seems to me that you are again just asking me to write the code for you, then you slap it into your mod.

Reborn wrote on Thu, 05 July 2007 17:48in anticipation of you asking what exactly is the code to add and where exactly to add it, word for word, operator for operator and line for line. I am going to encourage you to work it out yourself

Re-read the posts, it should make sense...
