Subject: Re: Why are you called what you are?
Posted by Goztow on Tue, 17 Jul 2007 11:41:06 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

My first nickname was Go-Stuff. It was back in the days of Internet bubble companies and I was 14. My friends and I started a website called Games Obsession. GO = Games Obsession but also the first two letters of my last name. Stuff was added to make it more Internet-like'ish .

With Red Alert, I played with Go-Stuff as allies and searched a more Soviet sounding variant, which became Goztow. This became Gozy later on (shorter). For info: my Yuri-nickname in RA2 was Gouzy (love it still!).