Hello, I am Mayor Fred of the gorgeous port city of Hamilton. I am not sure exactly what all of this controversy is about, but I love my city dearly and I loathe seeing her slandered by a sadly misinformed neighbour from the federally-funded capital region of Ottawa. (I have visited Ottawa many a time and I must say that it has a fine war museum!)

While it is true that poverty exists in Hamilton, and in many other cities within our great nation, I would also ask you to consider what Hamilton has to offer to your family, Mister Trooper M. 02, if you ever have the misfortune of reproducing.

Hamilton has a bustling economy and a large number of employment opportunities in the steel and manufacturing industries.

My city is home to the Royal Botanical Gardens, the Canadian Warplane Heritage Museum, the Bruce Trail, good old McMaster University, and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (go Ti-Cats!). Hamilton also possesses a fine public library system, an unmatched farmer's market, and a thriving arts district.

So, I hope that you will consider our lively city in a new, positive light the next time you are engaging in these seemingly pointless debates over the internet.

Good day to you!

-Mayor Fred.

ps. Vote Fred!
