WANTED - PROBLEM SOLVERS!

CAN YOU SOLVE PROBLEMS?

www.RenegadeForums.com is a thriving community of about 200 regular members and many visitors, we, however have one problem - we have too many problems.

CAN YOU HELP?

Well, if you can solve a problem of any kind, then yes! All you have to do is register with on the forums (a short procedure) and then you have to post "Stop Arguing" or "Can't we all just get along?" everytime someone else starts fighting. If you can write something more detailed, then you would be beyond ideal.

Pay - 14,000,000 $NE an hour (That is, Non-Existant Dollars)

Perks - You can review such classic threads as "C and C Canyon Modified Released" - Perhaps better known as "I DESLIKE YOU" and "Hardkil has threatened to impersonate me"

You also get to view the witty contributions by several members to other threads such as the "THIS MESSAGE FOR HALL OF FAME" link in my signature.

All applications to be posted in this otherwise worthless thread, where they will then be reviewed and printed by me, sit on this desk for 5 months, then get shredded and used as hamster bedding.

Any applicants who aren't suitable will have thier applications published to a wider audience (such as bash.org) where then can then be laughed at by the general population of the internet.

I look forward to reading your application,

Yours in jest,

CarrierII (Head of www.renegadeforums.com's newly formed problem solving department)
