-Smaller servers (which includes clanwars)
-A few gameplay issuses

When's the last time you played a clanwar? You've never participated in the league apart from losing a few odd games here and there, so stfu please. I know you love the attention acting like some clanwars pro on this forum full of noobs, but the only reason people over at clanwars know about you is because you make a fool out of yourself on this forum right here.
