2. Demand 1 v 1's, and then run the fuck away when someone good accepts.

3. Plant a beacon on a pedestal, say 'LOL I WIN g?G n00b' , and then realize pedestal has been disabled, only to run away and leave the game claiming you still won.

4. Claiming that your higher kill/death ratio is the real way to prove skill, even though your base is being blasted back to Baghdad.

5. Boasting of your being the first to play Renegade in your Uncle's cabin in Austria on a map that hadn't even been created yet, or something to that extent.

6. In a 4 vs 4 in n00bstories 2, you are whoring an airstrip (that is being repaired) on City_Flying with an Orca, racking up points, ignoring the APC landing off the plane, ignoring the four engineers piling into the APC, and then claiming you're bored when your Power Plant crumbles, but not before calling your team and the opposing team 'n00bs' and then leaving.

7. Being a mySpace "rapper" .

8. Did I mention planting a beacon on a pedestal, and then claiming you won, even though pedestal-win was disabled, and then running away.

9. shity spleing and gramarr cos u think ur 2 l337 2 poofreed

10. I'd be creeped out to go to anyone's cabin in Austria, to be honest. Sounds like where you'd meet 'Baron von Reacharound' .
Change 10 into :OMG YOU NUKED MY REF AS NOD ON FIELD! YOU MUST USED EXPLOITS!!!!!
