My 2 cents.

Yep, that basically describes everyone. But think about it, why wouldn't they if they have no clue about how to play or anything? They must. Im sure if you did search, you could find YEARS old topics I started about the TONS of shit I had on him, no one beleieve me and they just thought I legetimatly lost. Well, fucking finally I got everything I needed, and was winning against him even when he was cheating. Keep in mind, st0ne used to play for some good clans, and people considered him pretty high up on cw.cc, so for him to lose to me (on my bad day), even with cheats, now you see why he won't confess?

The kid is just a fucking disgrace period. And this all is why I say find 1 single example about me being wrong about a cheater, people bring st0ne up, let em talk now.
