And umm remember all i wanna do at this point really is edit the Westwood ones and put em on my server...just like many others have!

Yes, in that link i posted that is a map he made.

And if you use the pause & play button in all those video tutorials you could learn alot for yourself.

Plus try messing around yourself and use the tutorials for refrence and you can learn for yourself on how to do other things as well.

I beleive thats WHY the site was created, just read and watch, read and watch,pause and play pause and play lol.
