The computer is really a thin client connecting computer, it's not actually a computer just a client server connector. Here are some more screenshots BTW.

Nice cheats.

No jumping on the non-advantage skins bandwagon please. Its funny because, EKT is by FAR the worst offenders (apart from SoQ). Also, I think many of the same people who said "nice cheats", dont know enough about the subject because, a fucking shitload of people are using these skins, more than anyone knows. When's the last time someone on these forums or on another renegade related website posted a PURE SS's? Its been months.

Care about that, if it clearl offers some form of advantage = cheat = BANHAMMER.
Atleast, on the BlackIntel and TheKOSs2 servers
