Now the neo-convict loving Faux News has taken their corrupt practices to a new level by censoring Ron Paul. I realize that political debates on TV are cut and edited to better fit time restraints, but to cut THIS particular clip out infuriates me. It just goes to show that neo-convicts can't take a little bit of criticism.

Yeah I have gotten sick of it. You can hear the commentator cackle in the background...its pretty stupid they keep putting up this facade of "fair and balanced" when they are nothing of the sort. I think its funny they have disregarded their own post debate text polls...Paul keeps winning them by double digits.
