Now I understand more. My post wasn't meant as an offense, I basically tried to bypass some limitations I saw. Now I know a lot more thanks to you!

I took Gamemode 5 in order to save disabling the Vehicle Factories along with disabling the Beacons and the other Stuff. I mean, with SSGM, it's easy to set up a Team DM Server, but not a good pure DM mode which yours is. The main Advantage I see is the builtin Objective plus the Announcements where the players can read what to do.

I didn't know that Crates are bound to the normal C&C Teams, I'm sorry. I took infinite Ammo because the players aren't able to refill anywhere and secondly it makes Sense in a DM Server.

nvm, here are a few Screeners with picked Weapons, the Radar showing Enemy etc.
