Hello everyone. My name is -SF-mdluffy I am the leader of Superior Firepower.

Superior Firepower is a clan like no other in the community. I will explain to you why but first divisions, and each one has its own personal characteristics. You could choose a very friendly clan where everyone will be your best friend the first day, or you could choose a very arrogant one which so far is the best but you will never be in a war or anything of that magnitude since they already think they got their best. Then you check out the last of the three, which is the one that offers you a supportive community like no other and dictates like a socialist government. It is not the best, but not the worst; it is the one honorable clan. When it comes to communication and resources they are light years ahead of others, pushing everything beyond the limit. They have independent divisions and put all their potential to make them the best of their kind.

Superior Firepower has been an active clan since 2004; right now it has three divisions, APB, AR, and Reborn. Each division is run by a different type of General with his own special way of ruling.

unskilled player; we want you if you are an unskilled player but ready to be on the top, or already skilled and willing to be better.

These are the games that we are recruiting for right now.

Reborn (recruiting right now)
A Path Beyond (recruiting right now)
Apocalypse Rising (recruiting right now)

I will now tell why we are the best, but not because we have been a team since 2004, not because of our mighty Leaders or Generals. Not for the ventrilo server we own which by the way is open to make shirts about it. All we have to do is say it once and mean it.

We are the best only because of one reason, those who are such supportive members around the globe that work and follow instructions to develop the structure Superior Firepower is today.

Come join us my brothers and help Nod take over all:

Superior Firepower Ventrilo Server

First of all our ventrilo server is open to absolutely anyone, it is definitely not a recruiting office. All it is just a place to speak with others during game play or just about anything really. If you are a

C&C fan, then this is about your perfect ventrilo, since we also greatly enjoy playing any C&C game. We operate on a general respect policy; however mature conversation and swearing may be present on the forum and in our ventrilo chat, please be aware that we will not tolerate needless and excessive abuse of this.

Clan History

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank each and every new member of Superior Firepower! Myself, IonicObi, bahamut and especially mdluffy have gone through a lot to return this clan to it's former glory!

This clan first started 2 years ago by a man formerly known as Psych0. It was called Total Domination (TDxClan). I was a part of the clan and felt very accepted. The clan was a fair size (roughly 13 members). But some personal and financial troubles caused the clan's decline. I thought that was the last I'd ever hear of them....

About 9 months later, I got a message from my old boss, Psych0 (who had changed his name to xadet). He asked me to join his new Renegade clan called Superior Firepower. I was glad to join and glad to see a couple of my old buddies again. During that period, the clan consisted mainly of 2 games: C&C Renegade and Counterstrike. Although they were two different sets of gamers, they got along very well. During this period, three new recruits (mdluffy, rCadre/IonicObi, and bahamut) joined the clan.

But, once again troubles encountered xadet and he gave ownership of the clan to mdluffy, who offered to purchase the site domain in order to keep the clan alive. For the past 7 months or so, we have changed domains about 4 times, and had much trouble recruiting clan members. But this past month has been the most progress I have ever seen in the clan's history.

I would like to thank the other three 'senior members' of the clan. bahamut, for being such a nice guy, Ionic for your determination in getting soldiers for the clan, and mdluffy for being such a great leader and sacrificing so much to try and succeed in returning this clan to it's former glory.

It sounds kind of cheesy, but, I'm really happy to have been with the clan for so long.

I just really had to get that off of my chest.

Contact me or Superior Firepower for any more information.

This is my second clan site that is my sister clan. It is also recruiting right now.
