I would rather have the solid, bright, sharp, almost-cartoony graphics of RA2/YR rather than 3D eye candy crap.

Yesterday, I was playing the first Nod mission in C&C3. I quit in disgust after blowing up the 2nd pair of GDI power plants. Total game time: like 2 minutes. I also uninstalled the game. I doubt I would ever play the game again.

Then I went online and played Renegade for a couple hours.
