And im sure atleast at that point all of us would, thats 10-15,000+ sales just for adding a game mode. thats why I think theres a slight chance they will do it.

Yeah if they did a C&C mode like Renegade's (with PTs, MCTs, buildings, defenses, credits, etc.) then I think they'd win the hand of the Renegade community. It'd be a big success - and the game would be sure to last a long time through this community.

Though, Apoc said that this was never meant to be a sequel of Renegade, or even in the C&C series, but rather its own series. I just hope it's not too late for EALA could throw in a C&C mode. But from reading the interviews and such, it seems like the EALA team really doesn't like C&C mode.

It would've been nice if they told us about Tiberium a year or two ago (it's been in development for over 2 years), because then we'd be able to give in some input and opinion as a community.

Instead of going "sorry, it's too late now!"

You can all quote me on that." - Titan1x77, December 13th 2007
