That's what I don't understand about pirating EA games. People bitch and moan about EA, complain about their engines, patching, etc... but continue to play the games.

If you hate something, you generally don't want to touch it, or use it at all. You don't even want to look at it.

I'm starting to get this crazy idea that people saying they "hate" EA are merely trying to justify to themselves that it is OK to illegally download their games. Hell, I think it's just popular to hate EA because they are the 'top-dog' in town, and everybody loves to hate #1.

That's my only idea... I mean, why waste your internet speed, and use up a monthly download limit on something you hate?
