Section 1:

I would like you to point out the contradiction here other than "you don't get to pick who is the winner because you are in the debate" etc. Thats just the way it is, deal with it.

So for a rebuttal you went ahead and did exactly what I said you were doing in every post you make. Advance your argument absolutely none and filled it in with more of your person opinion crap.

"you try to claim you want any of these C&C3 games to actually succeed"

Err...I would like to see anything even remotely like that being said by me.. I have said the opposite since post 1. Do you even read these anymore or do you just post the same comment but worded differently?

Section 2:

I refuted the hell out of what you said in a 4 section post on page 4....you replied to the first section and ignored everything else.

That fact of the matter is that you apparently cant handle what is going on here. You attack me and not the subject, you don't reply to 70% of things I say and your argument has widdled down to just insults and the same comments over and over.

EDIT: If you care so much create a poll, you stopped debating about 3 post ago and there is no sign of a change.
