"Then you do EXACTLY THE SAME YOURSELF!"

That sentence you picked out is nothing like what your doing.
you're finally right about something, it's nothing like anything I did. it is something like you CLAIMED I was doing...

"he just doesn't even try to make any points anymore and just assumes he is putting out these infoulable remarks."

"I tore down your argument and you have yet to reply on what was said, you claim you cant understand it or some shit which is just a cop-out."

Oblivion165 wrote on Mon, 21 April 2008 15:52 Nonsense in the fact that its dead on and how could you even try to claim otherwise?
what are you even replying to here?

Oblivion165 wrote on Mon, 21 April 2008 15:52 All you say is personal opinion...again, it refuted your stand but you refuse to face any of it.

^^ this is pure idiocy, plain and simple... you've yet to refute a single one of my arguments, you just think you have by labelling them "opinions"

Oblivion165 wrote on Mon, 21 April 2008 15:52 "or something" If you actually bothered to read you would see that I was refuting your main points of argument. You know...the whole point to this thing.

rofl, you really are thick... how does explaining your mother's quest for disability disprove the fact you're wrong to attacking a company just because you don't like a couple of their products? Are you trying to be stupid or does it come naturally?

Oblivion165 wrote on Mon, 21 April 2008 15:52 Everything else is just trying to get you to actually talk some facts and not opinions.

let me repeat some facts, facts you couldn't refute but are too arrogant and downright stupid to accept:

Quote:because as I said right at the start and has yet to be refuted...

stealing games < making games some people don't like actively attacking a company just because you don't like their products < making games some people don't like

There's NOTHING you can say that will change these facts

Oblivion165 wrote on Mon, 21 April 2008 15:52 "be a better place if you knew where your front door was"

I think I could find it...

why don't you use it and get a real hobby instead of this pathetic little mission of yours? Seriously, can't you see what a sad way to live that is? Holy shit...

once again, let me repeat something (another thing you couldn't refute) if you don't like a company's products, don't buy them. Or hell, try to help them somehow. Either of the above would be what a sensible person would do... you're so full of shit that the only course of action you can think of is attacking the company like the selfish, unprincipled failure you are.
