"Actually read my replies." It's hard to say that I haven't refuted anything when you actively admit that you didn't read anything. Of course I didn't refute anything in your eyes because you didn't read it.
what the fuck?

how stupid are you? where do you get this nonsense from?

actively attacking a company just because you don't like their products < making games some people don't like"

How is this not opinion?
how is it not fact? Just because you're too stupid to see it doesn't make it opinion. If you had any principles whatsoever you'd have no problem understanding it.

saying "stealing games < making games you don't like" is like saying $2+2=4$, it's not even debatable... aside from anything else, you've demonstrated that in your failure to refute it, just like your failure to refute the rest of my arguments, just like y your entire mission to attack a company just because you don't like a few of their products is a failure...
