except I didn't chief, you're the one who kept bringing it up over and over and over again in your anger and insecurity, I didn't even respond at all most of the time.

like I said, every time someone completely freaks out over something renegade and they spend six months constantly bitching about it, they always, always assume I'm the angry one, not them... it's an enigma and no mistake.

are you done here, can you finally get over being asked for a screenshot, or are you gonna spend another six months in a rage?
