If everybody is allowed to carry a gun you should expect that also idiots carry guns. And also use them.

in germany police officers practically never die on duty... yes there are some incidents but most of them are pretty old. If you see someone in germany carrying a gun he has a) a uniform or b) is usually a criminal.

In USA a person with a gun is a standart US citizen.

See the problem?

If every idiot can buy his shotgun ,assaultrilfe and things in a supermarket you should be aware that the idiot did so.

Oh and stop me with the self-defence argument.

you don't run around killing everybody who you didn't like.

Some people do. And the sad thing about guns, usually the first person who draws a gun win. And trust me usually it's a gangster.
