He was asking these for the singleplayer... there's nothing wrong with cheating in singleplayer games, except it may ruin the fun a bit for the cheater.
that 'fortehloss' dude is a moron
Thank you.

Now please go back to your favorite server and enjoy the benefits of something called BIATCH.

Yes, I am one of the 2 people that came up with how it should work to stop cheaters serverside.

Also, if you would frequent these forums more often then you would know that Scrin here shows off his little pathetic cheats in public, while he's using them in multiplayer mode.
If he wouldn't have posted those screens I wouldn't even have bothered to reply. But he did, and if it where only single player then ok, whatever floats your boat, but cheating in MP is so lame.

Besides it being lame, it's also highly annoying for serverowners. It takes time to find cheaters and have enough proof to make sure they are cheating. For this reason I do like to flame cheaters, specially the kind that (almost) demands that certain things should be fixed/placed ingame.

Besides that I am a rather nice person who does not like to insult someone.
Oh, and a small side note: I am not a moron, dispite of whatever you might think. Another thing, your reasoning is flawed, as it is non-existend.
