Oh wow!

Made it even better! (why, i could of get a chance to ask questions on mod forum. since Reborn is a cool guy, it doesnt mean that every one should be on his side )

You're such a moron. No one is taking my side here. This hasn't been some sort of heavy v reborn battle, infact I have tried ignoring you for a while now, I don't quite understand the private message or why you dragged me into this really...

You have to take responsibilty for your own actions. If people dis-like you here, you can be sure that most of the blame only lies with yourself, rather then others.

And hooray for banning him, although he feels a short lived victory evading it now, he has finally managed to seal his own doom. We're on a roll here guys, first rocko, now heavy.
