I don't like rocko but here he made a good point. But on the other hand a serverside no-go wordlist would be a good idea. But it's not that urgent.

For me swearing is usually not a problem. You can't insult me with words or to say it a other way noone ever managed it.

The only problem for me is the useless spam afterwards:
Person A:Fuck you!
Person B:No fuck you!
Person:A Fuck You!
 Discussion -.-
