EA can't order you to do shit with a game they never made if you ask me FUCK EA and there gay ass generals ass hole's need a new game to sell.

I've been trying to leave you be, and just ignore the stupid bullshit that you post. However, your post has compelled me to say this: You're an idiot for bumping a topic to insult EA. Oh, and EA owns the rights to Renegade, so they can tell the people what to do. It doesn't take a genius to realize this.

Why does it seem that only idiots join this forum?
