I lost all my current work I have done in the past year lucky i was able to backup my map and some of my others works but i wont be able to get anything done soon unless my data wasn't erased on my D hdd where all my ren stuff was at. c drive lost all data which was just games and windows and something weird happend to my e drive which was more ren stuff and games. 1tb of space lol wow wtf shit like that scares me...how does one hardware wipe out all the hdd?
