Oh, please. If the camera reset in respect to the reticle, you'd probably bitch about that and someone will fill the same role with the "too hard for you to figure out, blah blah" nonsense.

Grow up.

Are u dumb? You're the one who is bitching and crying, just leave the gameplay as it is its perfectly fine. Why change the whole game cause acouple ppl cant figure it out?

^^

Already said, it's not that hard to hit your free aim button, go to where you want to look, then let it go... It's also easier to switch from target to target.
