This is it mates! The ultimate killar!

This is the major rework of my first skin I released last week. So many things added to make it more realistic and true to the initial screenshots. Plus, I added some of my own little things I thought will be a bit fun!

New beta facemask, and new clothing, new belt buckle, new knee pad style, larger shoulderpads, and a hostload of new stuff! I think this is true pwnage compared to the last one!

So many many thanks goes to ErroR and Soulhunter for their nice constructive criticism over the past days as I worked on this + for providing links to rare beta pictures I used as reference. Thanks mates for your input!

So here is the UBER preview!

Enjoy!!!11!11
