The problem is, some people have not learned to stay inside the lines and color their ren like 5 year olds. Luckily their are are also the ones that make a old game feel kinda new again.

Skins

Edit: That whole thing where people turn their bloom way up... that shit just hurts my eyes. Gotta agree with this, it's easy to say all skins are rubbish but there is a big difference between a plain red nod sniper and dregs tiberium sun nod sniper. So it all depends on the skin.
