KIRBY098EnglandKIRBY098Contrary to Lurker, England and TY's statements of WSE being "dead", it appears quite the opposite.

It may not be "officially" reformed, but then again, thier former members aren't either.

Jackass, i had nothing to do with it, im an Admin of the-pits.

A perfect motive. I find it ironic that the site where the most "reformed" WSE members are involved in administration is having the greatest amount of problem.

Let play a game of Grow the Fuck Up!

I think someone is just looking to start shit where he can
