You're oblivious to the amount of work it actually takes to finish any level. It's simple to sit there and chatter off about "Oh no, he didn't do anything, they were just given to him."

Okay hotshot, if they're so simple and easy to do, explain why it's taken me about eight months to get almost all of them finished? No conspiracy theories of "u new i wud pst dis so u porposefuily mad it so u t00k longr!!!!1111!1" please.

The ability to comprehend the tutorial depends on your intelligence level and how fluent you are with the English language. As in your case, difficulty is to be expected, considering you're almost illiterate and ignorant to most forms of written expression.

Nothing is original, either. Everything created comes from an inspiration of something else. How is it original at all to sit there and create levels for a game that already exists? :rolleyes:

Honestly, do you even think before you post?
