Revolt is the one who hacked msgtpain's site. I don't know why people try to cover up who did it when Revolt himself came into the n00bstories IRC channel and repeatedly not only admitted it, but showed no remorse for it, and gave everyone his home address.

I trust all the admins on the Pits except one, because he is WAY too close still with all these people who want to try and ruin the game for us. Plus he has more than once deleted my posts from the Pits forums and tried to kick/ban me from the Pits IRC channels though I am an admin same as him, and have been for lots longer.
