ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 20:52im not wrong at all i never believed you did anything you said you did what kind of idiot believes someone with low self esteem whos being picked on that he went around beating people up with baseball bats and even posted a fake picture of himself you've never refuted anything to be honest your just lying now i mean ss talks so much shit to you and says your most likely some fat nerd with glasses etc and you post a pic of your "friend" to proove him wrong and this means you was joking? even after all the pathetic replies you made to him to get back at him which backfired? damn...i thought you'd have a sense of humour and laugh off how you acted as a kid..guess not your PM's to liquid prooves spoonys judgement is questionable seeing as liquid never said anything to you yet you felt the need to PM him and insult him. nice to know he regards you as a valuable clan war player i'm sure your PM's to flame people from different communities will encourage people to join cw.cc

keep up the good work

ps: im glad you and ss have worked out your differences i was afraid if you never had his approval you may be the 1 jumping off the bridge instead of me

LMAO, low self esteem? i think i have more self esteem than your entire cod4 crew together, moron... how many of your e-buddys have actually ever posted a pic of themself on a renegade related forum? 1? maybe 2? i remember i asked simpee for pic when i was in EF LOL, reply was something among the lines of : "i send later, dont judge tho i might look bit pale cos monitor shining in face"... never got to see his picture, same with nearly everyone u 'hang around' with LOL, nice taking a stupid joke so serious claiming im "to insecure to post my own pic" or soemthing? I remember i have posted my pic several times actually but that 'argument' is about as retarded as all the other shit u bring up out of the blue, if anyone here is an insecure geek, i suggest you start by looking at your very own cod4 crew, before you throw around bullshit while i have refuted everything you said multiple times, this is like the 3th time u bring this shit up out of nowhere? guess you got to get rid of your anger somewhere... and how did i "flame" liquid? i told him to shut up about thinks he doesn't know anything about... how is that a flame, please explain cause i dont fully understand. as for SS(yet again): he used to piss me off when i just joined, i haven't had a single negative comment from him towards me in years now, good thing you keep track of time tho, but well yeah appearantly you seem to get your entire stack of bullshit "arguments" out of a museum anyways so im not exactly surprised to say the least. and also, i dont think your fully up to date(what a surprise) on the entire liquidv2 thing... i never "flamed" him before he started shit with me somewhere on this forum, so i'd say he started it therefor im sure i can give a reply on what my thoughts were(i even did this in a pm so i wouldn't have to bother the other people on this forum) and to end with: do you have any other bullshit that you'd like to throw at me that isn't taken from a flawed historybook?
