I use Facebook to get a quick word out to everyone at school/church like if people are going to a movie or there's a party or a lynch mob forming. I'm too lazy to call people individually. :V

Also it's a good place for rapidly sharing photos. Downside is the app spam those Mafia Fags are so proud of, but it's easily blocked.

Twitter to me is like decaf. Why taste shit-soup AND groan with fatigue? Utterly pointless. I don't care to know the status of you or your patio every 12 seconds.
