i0n will outkill you 2 to 1 on any map i'm sure, find him ingame sometime and do your best

That actually does mean i r teh best, noob. I out snipe him every time in aow sniping when i see him anyway....and that's with like a 30 fps. Every time I've played him I've out killed him 2-1+ honestly. He's only good at sniping noobs with his no free aim scope style. Against an actual good sniper in the tunnels, he's just average if you ask me.

First, quit bitching about your fps. You sound like a little whiny brat

Second, I've seen you in game like once, on under in jelly, that I know of. You killed me 1 time while i was running from the ob to the tunnel not even looking at my screen. You then proceeded to go freak out after I ran away and got behind a rock pming me about your lag and shit.

3rd, I can get most kills on almost every map I play if I try on Jelly. Maybe if Mike or Anthrax is playing they can out kill me if they are trying but that's about it. That map I was spending a good amount of time trying to take the field, and on top of that, nod was pinned in base, not exactly conducive to me being able to kill people, not that I was really trying to like I said anyway.

The truth is, you are just an annoying person on here, and probably everywhere. Your sole mission on here is to go around trying to prove to everyone that you are the best, when really, nobody cares. And the truth is also I could outkill you whenever I really felt like it, and it wouldn't really be that hard.

I don't use the name HaTe. I have screen shots of me owning you, actually. You won't 1v1 snipe me because you know what the result would be. I remember when you came into a sniper server about a month ago and could barely hold a 1.0 k/d. All you can kill are noobs who run in straight lines, while you scope them. I prefer challenges.
