thx very much   , but yestreday i found out the list of all the cards that work on my motherboard. M810 mobo is very choosy when it comes to graphics cards.

here is the website of all working m810 cards.

http://radel.inet.net.nz/m810lmr.html

now i have decided to chande my motherboard. i will also look for another graphics card.

thx very much. choosing a graphics is not that easy as i thought.
