yet it wasn't enough, so now im 4-1 vs u with random teams every game, while u have been claiming to be the best strategist/player/etc around by a landslide... if people really thought you were as good as u think u are then sure enough they would of just simply co operated and won easily regardless if teams were a tiny bit unbalanced (not like islands which cant even be counted as a real game) since you should be able to make up for it, and u couldn't... im just sayin: maybe your not as good as u claim to be?

and if your going to find some excuses for volcano: that was the only map i wasn't playing serious, i was hotwire rushing ref tunnel ALL game lol, regardless of how many people would be waiting for me there, and still made it to 2nd place with nearly no effort lol... sure enough i could of made quite abit more of a difference if i had gotten in a tank...
