I didn't actually read this thread, because Dicktree's threads kill brain cells very rapidly...

In short, America is so fucking scared of being racist it is actually getting more and more unfair in favor of idiots because they are a "minority"...

Fuck that.

My fiance worked hard through school to get good grades and be able to go to college. She ended up with a full ride, and some extra money for expenses... but she had to keep a high GPA.

Her Hispanic friend from high school didn't work nearly half as hard, but got a full ride to the same college, way more money for expenses, and didn't even need to keep a good GPA.

What is that shit all about?
