I have a different idea of this "pure" mode people are talking about. I don't think not using skins are other effects make the game not pure. I think pure is old school. No fancy stuff from the crate spawns, no drop mod, no spy's, and no tank shells. I know some of that stuff is server side only, but you take all that away from Renegade, and I think that's pure mode, or rather it should be dubbed, "classic" mode. drools
