It's Official guys and girls, Tiberium Crystal War is branching out to new mediums and has begun development on UDK version. Think of this as a Christmas present to all C&C fans!

Tiberium Crystal War is a FPS multiplayer shooter that will be based on the events from Electronic Arts 'Command And Conquer 3' game.

Experience first hand, the third Tiberium war and it's futuristic weapons, vehicles and apocalyptic, tiberium infested world of 2047 on Unreal Engine.

We are working really hard behind the scenes, to produce something that all C&C fans will enjoy! So please stay tuned as we have some more updates coming in the new year!
